

In 1997, a Plymouth Argyle fan called Richard Vaughan gave us the idea of Fans United.

IT HELPED SAVE OUR CLUB.

Tonight Brighton fans are returning the favour and using our live match against Leeds on Sky Sports to publicise the plight of Plymouth Argyle, currently in administration.

Staff and players haven't been paid in full since 2010 and negotiations are reaching a critical stage.

GO GREEN
GO GREEN
SAVE ARGYLE

Use this card to show your support

Join Brighton fans at the Fans Reunited match at Home Park, Plymouth on Saturday 24th September.

Full details at: www.fansreunited.co.uk