“ I'm gutted. Words can't describe the pain we're all feeling in your absence, Jimmy Mac... The signings of you and Sebastian have finally given us the FLAIR we all crave so much... I just want our flair king back. Don't be gone too long Jimmy. There are step-overs, tricks, and attackers to be beaten in our own box and there is no-one to take your place as lecturer of the spectacular. Your long, racehorse like legs speeding down the wing is a sight I'm not sure I can get over being without, and your short sleeves/ gloves look is my favourite in the game. Finally we have an Albion player prepared to go that extra mile to look good for the fans, and now he's been taken from us for some considerable time. Get well soon Jimmy Mac, we're all waiting for you baby. ”

Tom
